In order to validate your rental request, we ask you to return the completed and signed file with the requested documents within two days to : whf@welchomefrance.com. After this period we will not be able to guarantee the pre-booking because there are a lot of requests rooms are and accommodations are quickly booked.

Depending on the residence, administrative fees may apply in addition to Welc'Home France management fees. They will be communicated to you before your pre-booking.

After validation of your file we will ask you to pay the management fees* to the WELC'HOME France bank account to confirm your booking (the IBAN will be communicated to you).

As soon as your file is validated, we will provide you with the contact details of your accommodation.

The residence or the owner will contact you for the rent and deposit payment, the signature of the lease as well as the inventory.

The management fees paid to WELC' HOME France are not refundable because they are not related to the rental contract itself; these are ancillary costs that are considered management costs.

The Welc'Home France management fees will be refunded if your reservation couldn't be validated by the owner or the residence, but they will not be refunded if you cancel on your own.
